NEWBERRY COTTON MARKET

(Corrected by Summer Bros.)
Good Middling 8½c.
Strict Middling 8½c.
Middling 8½c.

For Cotton Festival.

An ice cream festival, to which the public is invited, will be given at the hall in West End on Saturday night. Proceeds to be given to the O'Neill Street Methodist Church.

At the Baptist Church.

Regular Sunday evening services will be commenced at the First Baptist Church, beginning with next Sunday evening. Rev. E. R. Pendleton will fill the pulpit Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Deaths.

Mrs. R. H. Russell died at her home in Prosperity Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

The remains were interred in Prosperity cemetery on Tuesday. A husband and four children survive her.

Dr. Preedy to Preach.

Rev. F. Y. Preedy, president of Erskine college, Due West, will be in Newberry on Saturday and Sunday, and will preach in the Thompson street A. R. P. church Sabbath morning and night. The public is invited to attend these services.

Meeting James D. Nance Camp

There will be an important meeting of Camp James D. Nance, No. 36 U. C. V., in the court house, on next Monday, October 6th, at 11 o'clock a. m.

A prompt and full attendance is earnestly requested. J. W. GARY, O. L. SCHUMPERT, Adj. Com.

The Mayor's Court.

The mayor has had quite a number of small cases before him the past week. Quite a nice little sum in dollars and cents was raked in from the gamblers, and there was one case for failure to pay street duty. Also a case for soliciting baggage at depots contrary to the provisions of a recent ordinance.

Meeting Daughters of the Confederacy

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Mrs. Mattie Glenn's.

Miss Elizabeth Dominick, Secretary.

There will be a missionary picnic at St. Paul's church, in the lower part of the county on Tuesday, October 7th, in the afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock and closing at 6. Refreshments will be served for the benefit of the missionary society. The public is cordially invited.

A. T. Brown, Honorary Member.

Mr. A. T. Brown, of this city, has been elected an honorary member of the horse racing committee for the Farmers' and Merchants' Trades Display to be held in Greenville October 21-24. Judging from the committee selected, Greenville is to have some of the best races in this State in years.

He Knows Better Now.

Yesterday morning Moech Boozer, a young negro boy who works for Sample & Lomnick, delivered beef at the residence of Mr. J. W. White. Seeing a scarf containing a gold scarf pin lying on the piazza, he quickly and quietly appropriated the pin. The pin was missed, Moech was searched, and the pin was found.

The mayor gave him $5 or fifteen dollars on the gang.

Obituary Notices.

Mr. Alan Johnson is sending circular letters to the various cotton ginners throughout the county for the purpose of getting an exact report of the number of bales ginned this season. From these statistics gathered throughout the county the department at Washington will make up its report of the cotton crop. October 18th is the last day for sending in reports to the county statistician.

Did Not Meet Them.

Editor Newberry Herald and News:—Please allow me to say through your columns that the statement made in your paper a few weeks ago, supposed to have been copied from another paper, that I officiated at the marriage of one O. W. Black and one Plossie Merchant is a mysterious mistake. I did not marry them; and, even do not know the parties.

Yours truly,

Y. von A. Riser.

New and Attractive Styles.

Mr. E. T. Carlson desires to announce to the good dressers of the community that he is prepared to supply their wants in men's wear. He has a full line of woolsens and worsteds. To the ladies, would say he also has a complete line of the latest styles and fabrics represented by an exclusive ladies' tailoring establishment. You can have the assurance of a faultless style, fashionable in a high degree; the best workmanship and a garment made to your individual measure to fit your form, and at a price consistent with the value. Remember, the fabrics are now ready for your inspection.

EX-GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN

On a Visit to His Old Home in Columbia.

(Columbia Cor. News and Courier.)

Ex-Governor D. H. Chamberlain arrived here today. The shock of the very recent death of his youngest son, a lad of 17 years, had so far prostrated him that, under medical directions he was obliged to make a complete change of scene and climate. Under these circumstances, as soon as he was able to travel, he revisits his old home here.

The Governor came unattended and if his health does not make a further change necessary he expects to remain here indefinitely. Governor Chamberlain looks very well indeed and has all of the brightness and affability that made him so well liked here during his former stay. He found many improvements in Columbia since he was here as receiver of the South Carolina and Georgia railway.

Brain-Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been bandied by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get this reliable remedy at W. E. Pelham & Son.

Get Green's Special Almanac.

Farmers! Bring or send the fruits of your labors to the State Fair at Columbia, October 28th to 31st, and you need not exclaim, as many are heard to do every year, "I can beat that."

ROSH HASHONAH.

Jewish New Year 5663 Began at Sunset Wednesday Afternoon—Day Celebrated Here.

Wednesday afternoon at sunset began the first day of the month Tishri, beginning the year 5663 of the Jewish era.

As with all other Jewish festivals, Rosh Hashonah lasted from sunset to sunset. This is always a most solemn time with those of the Hebrew faith—the season in which its members are supposed to review the actions of the past year, to repent and prepare for Yom Kippur, which comes ten days later.

It is believed that on Rosh Hashonah three books are opened. One is for the righteous, who are immediately inscribed for life; one for the wicked, who are instantly inscribed for death; and one for the nondescript, who are left on probation. If the latter repent during the ten penitential days, which is the time between Rosh Hashonah and the Day of Atonement, their names are written in the book of life.

After the ceremonies pertaining to the day are over, the worshippers refresh themselves and exchange visits of greeting, after the style of the Christian New Year. The rest of the day is given up to good cheer.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, coming ten days later, is a solemn day of fasting and repentance.

Rosh Hashonah was ceremoniously observed in Newberry yesterday, and no business of any kind was transacted by those of the Hebrew faith.

PROSPERITY NEWS.

New Bank Building a Neat Structure. Office Improvements—Death of Mrs. Roseell—Persons.

Prosperity, S. C., Oct. 1.—Mr. I. B. Bedenbaugh leaves this week for his course of lectures in the medical college. He expects to see us again next spring a full fledged M. D.

Our community is grieved over the death of Mrs. Russell, the wife of Mr. R. H. Russell. Mrs. Russell had been sick for a long time. She went away during the summer to seek health among the health resorts of Western North Carolina. Her return was hurried by getting worse, and after a few weeks she passed away. She was buried in the cemetery here Monday of this week. She leaves a loving family and many friends to mourn her departure.

During the closing days of last week, Mrs. Moore, wife of Mr. J. B. Moore, and daughter of Mrs. L. M. Counts, also passed away. She did not live here, but came here in her last illness to be with her mother. She was buried in the Singletary graveyard, several miles away in the county.

Mrs. C. E. Stewart and wife are visiting his mother, Mrs. H. S. Boozer.

The brick building occupied by The Bank of Prosperity is quite a neat structure, and adds much to the appearance of that part of the town. And when the rubbish incident to building has been cleared away, much more can be said.

The building of the other business houses is moving along rapidly. Mention was made last week of improvements on several residences, but my letter found its way into the editorial waste basket, or into some other rubbish. Some pains had been taken to gather information about our cotton market, and the rush in all lines of business, but this also shared the same fate.

I am growing, Mr. Editor, because my best efforts had been put forth, and you swept them aside as worthless. Of course, from your standpoint it was "stuff," but then you know this concerned our own city, and consequently another view point is ours.

Mrs. W. P. Blanton left for her home in Graniteville Wednesday of this week. Mr. Cecil Wyche, who won the Citadel scholarship for this county, left Tuesday for the opening of that school.

The school here has a gratifying increase of patronage over the past session.

Mr. J. P. Bowers took a trip to Batesburg this week and with him his little grandson, Pat Mitchell.

Little Miss Elizabeth Bearden, granddaughter of Dr. Luther, has been visiting here. She returned to her home in Columbia this week.

It was our pleasure to attend Children's Day at Mt. Tabor, in No. 9, last Saturday. The day seemed to have been a great success from every point of view, and especially socially. The people showed themselves exceedingly fond of speaking and had provided three for the occasion. Rev. J. K. Elford, one of the speakers, made a departure by using catchwords upon the blackboard to enforce and impress his ideas. His address was well received.

Rev. W. A. Lutz, the pastor, also made a very practical and telling address.

Mrs. Kibler, of Prosperity, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Simpson.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me space in your paper to thank my friends for their very helpful and untiring aid and sympathy during the illness and death of my daughter, Mrs. L. M. Moore. I can never hope to return all the kindnesses, but may God bless and richly reward you for it.

Sincerely,

Mrs. L. M. Counts.

OPENING DAY

At the Mower Co.'s and The Riser Millinery Co.'s on Tuesday.

Tuesday was "opening day" in Newberry, the day of all the days in the year when the women take possession of the town and run it to suit themselves—the day when men are scarce, especially if they have wives who have made up their minds to have new bonnets.

In the show windows of the MOWER CO.

was a splendid array of dress goods, clearly showing that this firm know their customers and have brought to their doors the most artistic goods which the American market can supply. Especially striking was the neatness in the arrangement of the entire store. But the centre of attraction was the millinery department, where were hats of all styles and prices to please the feminine eye. The wax figure was especially beautiful in a white and black suit with a large picture hat.

AT THE RISER CO'S.

The show window at the Riser Millinery Co.'s looked as if it might have been transported from some Northern city. The decorations were of white and green, which are to be the leading colors of the season, and the beauty of the hats was enhanced by dainty asparagus ferns. A large stuffed bird added much to the attractiveness of the arrangement.

The interior was made beautiful with begonias and cut flowers.

The collection of trimmed hats was large and strikingly beautiful. Many were the ladies who "came, saw, and were conquered" by the novelties there displayed.

News From West End.

Mr. Jacob Bouknight went to Chapin Saturday to visit his son, and returned Sunday.

There were no services at the Baptist church Sunday morning, owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. N. N. Burton.

It being Children's Day at the Baptist church Sunday night, there was no preaching at O'Neill St. church.

Rev. G. A. Wright preached in the chapel at the Molohon Mill Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ellie Bodie, of Columbia, and Mrs. DeVore, of Ninety-Six, are visiting Mrs. Sallie Jones.

The young people of West End were entertained with a dance in the banquet hall Saturday night.

Sunday was Children's Day at the Baptist church, and the exercises were very interesting. The programme was as follows:

1. Invocation.

2. Song by Children—"Blessed be the Lamb."

3. Scripture—"The Foundation of Our Faith."

4. Hymn—"Fall into Line."

5. Precious Invitation—"Come."

6. Hymn—"Whosoever Will."

7. Recitation—"Show us the Way."

8. Command—"Go."

9. An Acrostic on Missions.

10. Hymn—"Go Ye into all the World."

11. Recitation.

12. Scripture—"The Call to Service from Our Country."

13. Recitation—"The Child's Prayer."

14. Hymn—"Pass it On."

15. Recitation—"Please the Little Children."

16. Recitation.

17. Song by the Children.

18. Scripture—"The Great Region Beyond."

19. Address by Pastor—"Our Dues to Missions."

20. Duets—"How Long, O, How Long?"

21. Recitation—"A Cry from Heathen Lands."

22. Collection.

23. Hymn—"From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

24. Benediction.

Purity in flour ought to be an important consideration in every family. In making "Clifton" flour every grain of wheat is thoroughly cleaned before grinding, and is converted into flour in a hygienically clean, modern mill. The flour is purified, aerated and sifted through delicate silk cloths before it is sacked. Absolute purity is thus assured.

The best flour looks very much like any other flour when it is in the sack. The real test is in the baking. That's where "Clifton" flour excels by every test—excels in purity and perfection; in the quality and richness of the bread.

Pure flour really does not cost any more than flour that is not strictly pure. "Clifton" flour is guaranteed strictly pure wheat flour, and is sold at a reasonable price. "Clifton" has no rival. There is no better flour sold at any price. Bransford Mills, Owensboro, Ky.
